SBA to honor 7 women mentors

Seven local business women who have participated as mentors for fledgling women business owners in the Small Business Administration's Women Network for Entrepreneurial Training program during the past year will be recognized at a ceremony to be held at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 16 in room 403 of the Federal Building.

The honorees are: Marion S. Anderson, vicepresident of the Kopper Kettle Restaurant; Rita Baron, president of Larita Productions Inc.; Judith Leone, vicepresident of Keystroke Secretarial Services Inc.; Kathleen Arnold, owner of The First Impression; Sara Kash, president of Write Women Supplies Inc.; Jackie DiBella, president of the JEM Group of Rochester Inc.; and Renee Shanly, president of Renee Shanly Associates Inc.

Any woman or business who is interested in participating either as a mentor or a protégé should contact Marcia Ketchum, WBO Representative at 263-6700.
